I am a London based freelance lighting cameraman with years of experience, working both in the UK and Internationally on a variety of different productions.

I have good experience with HD, Digibeta, SX and DVCAM, and also have good knowledge of minicams and other specialist equipment.

I am fluent in German and have a clean U.K driving licence. I am reliable, and a team player. I bond quickly with people and understand the pressures of those I work with.
