GAVIN ROBERTS

Steadicam / Camera Operator

ABOUT

Since becoming freelance I have built up a solid reputation as a creative, resourceful and reliable steadicam and camera operator with own kit, whilst working in the UK broadcast and corporate industries.

I have been a freelance operator since 2004, working on anything from small single camera shoots to full on OB events. I am available to travel and work anywhere in UK and Europe. I'm a fluent Welsh and English speaker and a member of GTC.

TRAINING

January 2013

Studio Camera Skills – BBC Academy
Two week course at BBC Evesham helped me to operate studio pedestal cameras in a studio environment.

September 2012

Health and Safety – IOSH Passport
One day course at Manchester Media City, Creative Industry Safety Passport as accredited by IOSH.

Steadicam Operator – NFTS.
One week course at NFTS London helped me to operate different steadicams and fly steadicam on documentaries, sport, music promos and live events.

August 2012

Camera and Lighting – London Academy of Media Film & TV
Five day course at LAMF and TV based in London helped me with lighting scenes for single camera, which shots are available and how to film video on different types of cameras.

September 1999 – 2002

Audio Visual and Production – Bournemouth and Poole College
Two year course at Bournemouth College. HND in Audio Visual and Production helped me operate and understand cameras, sound, lighting, script writing, directing, producer etc.
