COLIN COOMBER

DIRECTOR of PHOTOGRAPHY/ CAMERA OPERATOR

Colin is a London based Director of Photography and Camera Operator with over 10 years experience in the camera department. Colin has experience shooting commercials, branded content and narrative drama, as well as, TV documentary and corporate. A personal highlight for this year for Colin was shooting a Channel 4 Random Acts short 'The Dam', which has screened at film festivals all over the world including London Short Film Festival. He approaches every project with a passion to make the most stunning images possible, no matter the size of the screen they are intended for. He prides himself on using his knowledge of camera, lighting and grading to create unique custom looks, specifically tailored to and inspired by the needs of the story. Colin also has a wealth of knowledge and expertise in all technical aspects of production including 4K, anamorphic, high speed photography, time lapse, Log and RAW workflows as well as shooting for HDR.
